JOURNAL OF MATHEMATICAL PSYCHOLOGY STUDENT TRAVEL AWARDS (2019)

The Society for Mathematical Psychology is providing a limited number of conference participation awards in the range of $50-$150 on a competitive basis. The purpose of these student conference participation awards is to subsidize the costs of participation in the Society for Mathematical Psychology Annual Meeting (www.mathpsych.org).

To be eligible for a graduate student or postdoctoral scholar conference participation award, an award applicant must satisfy the following conditions:

- (1) Be a student member or member of the Society for Mathematical Psychology (application forms may be found at: www.mathpsych.org)
- (2) Be a co-author on an abstract for an oral or poster presentation at the Society for Mathematical Psychology Meeting.
- (3) The award applicant should be either: (i) currently enrolled as an undergraduate or graduate student, or (ii) be a postdoctoral scholar.
- (4) Submit a copy of the abstract as part of the student award application file.
- (5) Submit an updated academic vita summarizing professional accomplishments.

Please submit your application materials by April 30, 2019, including a copy of the submitted abstract and an updated vita via EMAIL to Secretary/Treasurer Leslie Blaha, at the email address info@mathpsych.org with subject header: 2019 Student Participation Award <nominee name>.

Awards will be officially announced and distributed in person at MathPsych/ICCM 2019 during the Business Meeting.
